Honorable Judge Tomlinson:

I write to you as a Brother-in-Law of Gershon Barkany. I have known him since he is three yrs old, and we have grown very close over the years. He has always been one that anyone in the family or community can count on in a time of need. Amongst his many attributes, he is not one to walk away from any situation he finds himself in. He no doubt will be resolute in appearing and defending his innocence at trial, and will fully abide by the rules of his release.

Kindly grant his bail request, so that he can be reunited with his dear wife and young daughter who miss him so much. Needless to say, his incarceration has also taken its toll on his elderly parents, who worry constantly about him.

Your understanding and compassion will be much appreciated.

Sincerely,

Joel C. Goldberg

Dear Hon. Judge Tomlinson:

As the oldest brother of Gershon Barkany, I write to your honor, to kindly show your consideration by granting his bail request. In all the years I know him, through success and failure, Gershon is always there and never fails to work things out. I therefore truly believe he will honor the terms of his bail in full.

His little daughter, pregnant wife, our dear parents, and all his siblings miss him immensely and eagerly await his return home. Kindly grant him that privilege.

Sincerely

Rabbi Mordechai Barkany

Honorable Judge Tomlinson

My name is Aaron Barkany.

I am writing to you on behalf of my dear youngest brother Gershon Barkany.

I beg your Honor, please show compassion and grant Gershon the opportunity to return to his family and properly prepare to deal with his allegations.

Gershon has told me that he's only living for his family, his pregnant wife and dear daughter. This is what gives him the strength to deal with the personal issues he's currently striving to overcome.

I am humbly asking from the depths of my soul that his Honor will have mercy on my parents, family and wonderful devoted wife and grant my brother Gershon the best possible opportunity to face his allegations and defend himself in the best way possible.

May God grant your Honor much success and good health.

Sincerely,

Aaron Barkany
